++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rather cloudy but mostly dry.

Today:
A mostly cloudy but largely dry day, although northern and western hills may see a few spots of rain and drizzle. Best of any brighter spells likely across more southern and eastern counties. Mainly light southwesterly breeze. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
A few clear spells possible across the south and east but generally remaining cloudy, again with a little light rain and drizzle across northern and western hills. Freshening southerly winds. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tuesday:
A cloudy but mainly dry start but some brighter spells developing. However cloud increases from the west with outbreaks of rain spreading east through the late afternoon. Strengthening southerly winds. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Becoming increasingly unsettled with showers or longer spells of rain, best of any sunnier spells in east. Colder on Friday with showers turning wintry, especially over hills.
